Faucet Hand PUSH Hand

PUSH Handle can quickly dispense coffee or tea from a faucet. The "push" free" cup activated by a push of the handle. Most tea and coffee makers and dispensers in the food service industry are designed with a brushed finish. This is a great way to help customers dispense coffee or tea at drink counters. The handles are designed to be used from dispensers in the food service industry. Dispensers are located in the food service industry. The handles will not work correctly if the dispensers are removed. In those cases, the handles should be removed.
